

Grelen's 250!

We invite you to slow down, wander, gather, and reflect on the beauty that connects us!

Within a 250-mile radius of Somerset lies an extraordinary tapestry of cultivated beauty — historic estates, botanical gardens, university collections, native plant sanctuaries, private foundations, and public parks that collectively tell the story of our region's landscape. This list of 250 gardens is both a celebration and an invitation: a celebration of the individuals and institutions who are creating and stewarding these spaces, and an invitation to explore, learn, and be inspired.

From grand, internationally recognized destinations to quiet, lesser-known gems, each garden reflects a commitment to cultivating beauty and deepening our connection to the natural world. Together, they form a living network of places that nourish the soul, spark curiosity, and remind us of the power of landscape to shape community and memory.
